

A modern, minimalist office interior. The background features a wall-mounted shelving system with white shelves and a grey concrete wall. The shelves hold various items: a potted plant, books, white storage boxes, a wooden magazine holder, and a black bird figurine. In the foreground, a light-colored wooden desk is set with a stack of books, a coffee cup, and a rolled-up document. Three black mesh office chairs with chrome frames are arranged around the desk. The overall aesthetic is clean and functional.
